Lloyd Chamberlain Admitted To Bar

CLYDE — Lloyd Chamberlain, B.Sc., LL.B., of Clyde, son of Mrs. Adrian Anderson of Camrose, and the late Mr. John Chamberlain of Clyde, was presented at the Court-house, Edmonton, last Thursday by Mr. P. G. Davies, K.C., of Clyde, for admission to the Bar of Alberta. Mr. Justice Hugh Macdonald presiding.

Mr. Chamberlain, born at Provost, Alta., July 22, 1924, moved with his family to Clyde in 1930 and took all his public and high school schooling at Clyde Consolidated school from which he graduated in 1943. He received his B.Sc. from the University of Alberta in 1947 and his LL.B. degree in May, 1950. Since graduation Mr. Chamberlain has been serving his Articles with Mr. Davies at Clyde with whom he will now be associated in the practice of law.

In welcoming Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Justice Macdonald complimented him on his fine scholastic record through school and for his industry and perseverance in reaching the goal he had set for himself.

He pointed out that students in rural areas did not always have and often needed encouragement in furthering their education and he urged Mr. Chamberlain to take an interest in young people and do everything he could to encourage them to continue their education. He also compared the practice of a city solicitor to one residing in the country. He was much closer to his client and had personal relationships with those he did business with which was lacking in the city, and usually succeeded in bringing parties together and avoiding litigation and animosities that follow between neighbors. He thought this a very useful work. He also emphasized the opportunities there were in the country for community service and the advancement of the public interest, which a city solicitor did not have to the same extent.

Clyde Pupils Present Recital

Many of these pupils will be examined this week by a representative of the Toronto Conservatory.

The grade 10 and 11 classes in the Clyde school, finished their school term on Thursday of last week as the grade nines and 12's commenced their final exams. Preparations are being made for the

The Sunday School picnic held last Wednesday evening was dampened by a shower of rain, nevertheless the children enjoyed a dip in Island Lake and the picnic lunch.

Miss Peggy Tann and Robert McLeod of Calgary were Sunday visitors here, renewing old acquaintances while on their way to the former's home at Athabasca.

A heavy rain fell in this district from midnight until five o'clock Saturday morning, the kind that saves the crop when rain is most needed. As a result, the crops in this district are looking good and the gardens are coming along, except for the part the cutworms ate.

Island Lake is once more getting to be a popular place on Sunday afternoons, as residents of the Clyde and Westlock districts gather there for boating, swimming and picnic lunches.

VETERANS MINISTER Lapointe has reported that the government intends to ensure that veterans of the Canadian U.N. force in Korea get the same benefits as those of the Second World War. A department committee is studying the veterans' charter of the Second World War to determine which section of that charter, particularly those dealing with rehabilitation, should apply.

Canadian Unity

This year Canadians from coast to coast are being asked to focus their attention for the week of June 24th to July 1st on the state of the nation's unity.

The idea of a Week of Canadian Unity has been conceived and is being sponsored by the French Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association and the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association.

Canadians have never been too conscious of their own unity, have been too prone to think of themselves in terms of the provinces in which they live, of the ethnic groups of which they are a part or of the language which they speak. Believing that Canada is more unified than Canadians realize, the two great newspaper associations are sponsoring this week to bring home to the people of this nation the fact of Canadian unity.

In any land as far flung as Canada there are bound to be sectional differences but the Canadian democratic way of life, the Canadian conception of freedom of the individual, Canadian pride in the achievements of this youthful nation surpass infinitely any differences that may exist.

Canadians do not know too well their own story and are better acquainted with the historical figures of Britain, France and the United States than they are with the great men of their own past. A quiz, for instance, on the Fathers of Confederation would keep most Canadians guessing.

If Canadian Unity Week accomplishes only two things—impresses Canadians with the astounding degree of unity achieved during the short 84 years since Confederation and convinces Canadians of the necessity of knowing each other better if the unity of the nation is to be strengthened—Canada's weekly newspaper association will have attained their objective.

Canadians must work at this task of strengthening the unity of the nation. It requires the best thought and effort of every citizen. It is a year round job.

On World Map

In July Rev. Fr. McGrane will set sail for England and France on board a trans-Atlantic steamer in company with four members of the Lac La Biche sea cadet corps. The boys will be good-will ambassadors for, not only Lac La Biche, but Alberta and Canada as well. They will proudly sail Exeter II along the rivers and canals of England, across the English Channel from the "White cliffs of Dover" and up the Seine to Paris.

Father McGrane, who has complete command of both English and French, is fittingly enough taking boys who represent four nationalities in his crew, representative of four races making up a good part of the population of cosmopolitan Lac la Biche. They are English, French, Ukrainian and Italian.

This event is unique for any Canadian town. It will bring international distinction to this growing community on the shore of "Lake of the Elk" in north-eastern Alberta—distinction citizens could not buy with any amount of money.

Ironic Iranian Crisis

The British government, beset by an unholy urge to socialize industry in the homeland, is in a funny position. It is disputing the right of another sovereign country to socialize its principal industry. Mr. Attlee and his government with one hand is restraining the British Conservative party from tearing down his socialization of British railways, iron and steel industries. And with the other hand he is trying to restrain Persia (Iran) from forcefully taking over its wealthy oil industry. At home in Britain the Labor party is socialist. But abroad in Iran it is a 53% capitalist shareholder in one of the world's most lucrative businesses.

We know perfectly well that Soviet Russia may gain control not only of the oil industry but of the whole country of Iran if the British are forced out. But how do the British socialists reconcile their domestic and foreign philosophies of government?

Divorce By Parliament

By T. W. PUE

During the past few weeks a great deal of attention has been paid to the matter of parliament, in Ottawa, having to concern itself with Divorce petitions coming from Quebec and Newfoundland.

I have received an outline of the divorce situation from Senator Gershaw, who has been a member of the divorce committee for several years, and in the words of our own Alberta Senator, J. W. Stambaugh, "is well qualified to speak on the subject." These are Senator Gershaw's own remarks:

T. W. PUE

DIVORCE

"Many articles on divorce have appeared lately in various publications and there is a widely held view that the Canadian procedure is dealing with these unfortunate cases could be improved."

"An old Quebec law stated that marriage could be dissolved only by the death of one of the partners. This was confirmed by Confederation, so there are no divorce courts in Quebec. There are none in Newfoundland. In all the other provinces, the Supreme Courts have jurisdiction."

"An applicant for divorce from a province where there is no court dealing with divorce, can petition the high court of parliament for a relief."

"In Nova Scotia, cruelty is possibly a ground for divorce but in all other parts of Canada, Adultery is the only ground upon which a divorce is granted."

"In Eire and South Carolina there are no divorces, but most other countries recognize divorce for various causes. In New Zealand there are eleven grounds for divorce and, in U.S.A., a very undesirable situation of loose divorce laws seems to exist. "Every divorce granted by the Canadian parliament means a special Act and goes through the regular procedure."

"Petitions are first referred to the Senate Committee. Witnesses are heard and barristers present the case as in a court of law. Any member of either House is welcome to attend these hearings."

"The children are always asked about but the committee have no power to enforce conditions regarding their care. A divorce does not relieve any parent of the legal duty of supporting a child, but if the parent is no good or disappears, laws cannot be effective. Many of the married people coming to the committee have no children. In other cases, the children have grown up or are well cared for by one parent or someone able to do it."

"The committee really go into the cases very thoroughly and the chairman is an experienced lawyer, so that the rules of evidence are observed. If the case is recommended—and a lot of them are not—the evidence is printed and every member of both houses get a copy. It is now a bill and must pass 3 readings in the Senate. Then it goes to the House of Commons where it must pass the 3 readings on different days and be investigated by the Private Bills Committee. This committee can call witnesses or hear argument by Counsel."

"A fee of $210.00 is charged but, in cases of people of low income, the fee is reduced sometimes to $50.00."

"Every one of these cases is a domestic tragedy. It is often said that divorce breaks up the home, but these homes are already broken—and badly broken—before a divorce is applied for. There are many very sad cases. There is cruelty, drunkenness, desertion and shame in many cases. The writer has urged that adultery should be a crime under the law, as it is a moral crime. In many cases, co-respondents will, under oath, say almost boastfully and without a blush of shame, that they have committed adultery with the respondent."

Senator Gershaw could not get any support for such a measure but there would be fewer divorces if adultery were punishable by law in all Canada, as it is in one province. Some get a divorce very easily by proving this crime, while others much more deserving cannot get relief from intolerable conditions."

The petitioner cannot get freedom if there is any collusion, condonation or connivance. These terms are always explained to the witness and efforts are always made to see if there is any chance of reconciling the parties who have strayed so far apart."

Such is Senator Gershaw's informative explanation of how Parliament handles divorce. The question remains with us: should our legislators continue to handle divorce cases? Or should a special National court be set up to do it?

Do you have the answer?

BASIN STREET BLUES

Dear Sir—I would certainly like to make a trip to Canada, as it's pretty hot down here now. As high as 97 degrees. All the pools and the beaches are open now, so Mr. Pue could enjoy a swim in New Orleans now that it's summer time. I appreciate reading your paper and liked your write-up about New Orleans.

LIVING COSTS

Dear Sir—The cost of living index in Britain, for April, is up five points; in the States, up and up; in Canada, up only one-fifth of a point. Pass the salt, please! Prairie farmers are to get six cents more for wheat (but still 34c below street price) so the bakers and millers are going to hike bread one cent per loaf, and flour 15 to 20 cents per sack.

WHO'S BAD-TEMPERED

Dear Sir—Your paper has lots of news on a wide variety of subjects, but the letters to the editor are the shoddiest feature of the entire paper. I have never, by many yards, seen such a collection of ignorant, unintelligent, and bad-tempered letters. About one in 20 is worth printing, and probably about one in 20 of those printed is worth reading.

DRUNK TESTS

Dear Sir—I was sure pleased to hear of the federal government's decision to legalize chemical tests for drunkenness—it is the greatest single contribution to traffic safety since the introduction of the hydraulic brake. For once the police will definitely be able to determine whether a man is drunk. But there is one drawback to the new system. The tests are only optional—not compulsory. Let's hope Ottawa makes them compulsory.

Dear Sir—I come from B.C., and although I like Alberta I still get homesick for the mountains and lakes—and most of all, the fresh fruit. American fruit is selling in our stores now at high prices, but just wait till that delicious B.C. fruit gets here in a week or two. Then I'll have a feast!

MEDICAL SERVICE

Dear Sir—That new Trans-Canada Medical Service which Canadian doctors are launching as the answer to socialized medicine may go a long way. I really think that socialized medicine is faulty because people tend to abuse it. However, this is still a capitalistic country, and at least it's good to see the doctor's offering something better in the way of medical service. I contend that although there are many faults in our democracy, it is getting better all the time.

FIRE PREVENTION

Dear Sir—I am pleased to report to your paper that the Fire Prevention Campaign carried on by Imperial Tobacco Co. last year was quite a success. Signs, radio broadcasts, films, advertising and other methods were used to encourage people to do their part in preventing forest fires. We plan to expand our campaign this year, and your continued support will be warmly welcomed.

BELIEVING THE BIBLE

Dear Sir—I noticed T. W. Pue's article, "Honesty in the Pulpit," in your paper and it seems to be ridiculous from a standpoint of modern thinking. I cannot see that the Rev. Henry is any more in a quandary than any other hard thinking Christian who is striving to understand the truth. Your statement that he does not believe the Bible is unfair and unworthy of you. Do you believe every last word that had been put in the Bible? Just because you may not believe every word would you like to have someone publish abroad that you disbelieved in the Bible?

TOO MANY PINPRICKS

Dear Sir—The good old fashioned general doctor with his careful diagnosis seems to be a thing of the past. Now all they tell you is "Bend over Bud," and they whang you with a horse syringe full of antibiotics. Oh, sing a song of streptomycin, pockets full of penicillin. Shoot the aureomycin to me, John, boy, and never mind the cost!

Pulpwood Industry Brings Prosperity To Northern Alberta Lumber Districts

A new kind of boom is bringing prosperity to the Alberta Northland, and there's every indication the boom will continue.

Millions of dollars are being spent in the Lac la Biche area as sales of pulpwood to United States paper manufacturers goes on apace.

Entire settlements are being revitalized by the new pulpwood industry. And it's an industry that every man can get into.

Box cars are being loaded daily to be shipped south on the Northern Alberta Railways. From Edmonton they are transferred to other rail lines, and find their way into the U.S., bound for paper plants.

DEAD TREES USED

Only dead fire-killed trees are being bought as they are dry and light in weight.

If cutting of live trees took place it would require one year's drying before shipment could be made. This would require more capital than is apparently available—and the demand in a year might go down.

One buyer of pulpwood said his company had spent $30,000 in one remote district—the Kikino colony. Thousands of dollars are being poured into every district, and trappers, farmers, and loggers are all being kept busy supplying pulpwood to the many buyers.

Liquor and beer sales—always a good barometer of prosperity—

ALTA. STILL IMPORTS OIL

CALGARY, Alta.—(BUP)—The Canadian version of carrying coals to Newcastle could well be bringing oil to Alberta.

Union Oil of California did just that, by moving into the oil lubricants sales field in the province. The first shipments were distributed by independent dealers throughout the province.

have risen sharply in the district recently.

The increased prosperity has spread throughout the entire district, and signs of it are noticeable everywhere.

Alberta Oil Output Shatters Records

A daily average Alberta crude production of 165,724 barrels for the week ended June 11, broke the previous record by more than 13,000 barrels daily. The previous record was 152,895 barrels daily during the week ended May 21.

The record production was up 50,000 barrels daily from the previous week ended June 4, when production was 115,028 barrels. The increased production resulted from an increased conservation board allowable—156,120 barrels daily for June against 142,530 barrels daily for May. Production came from 2,307 wells, an increase of 20 over the previous week.

Veteran Had Broken Back Doctors Just Tested Head

An Alberta war veteran who suffered eight years of agony is now on the road to recovery after having known pain, poverty and shame. They told him he would never get well until he forgot about his imaginary ills.

This mistaken diagnosis was kept alive until he was finally X-rayed this spring in a Vancouver hospital. The X-ray revealed he had a broken back.

The matter was brought to light in the House of Commons last week when John Blackmore, Social Credit member for Lethbridge, charged that Read suffered "a most regrettable miscarriage of justice" at the hands of the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Since that day he has been in pain almost all his waking hours. He has been poor because he hasn't been able to hold a job, and his gratuity cheques have long since disappeared.

After a six months' internment in Sweden, Read was shipped back to England, and then to Canada, where he was discharged at Ottawa.

Just before his discharge, Read began to suffer severe pains. His head would often twitch, and he often had to grab the left hand lapel of his tunic with his teeth to keep his head from flopping over to his right side. After his discharge, he got worse. Often his wife had to dress him.

All this time the doctors told him his trouble was only imaginary. Read lived with the fear his trouble lay in his mind, not in his body.

That's what the doctors told him. It's your mind and not your

Michaud-Schuller Rites

A pretty bridal was solemnized recently at the St. Clare's Church in Edmonton, when Miss F. J. Schuller became the bride of Mr. Phillip Michaud, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Michaud.

Rev. Father J. Frost performed the ceremony under an arch of carnations.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, was gownned in broadcated white satin and net. Her finger-tip veil was held in place with a white velvet headpiece, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Marie Schuller attended her sister as bridesmaid, wearing a dress of bridal blue nylon and she carried a colonial bouquet of flowers.

Mr. Willie Michaud attended his brother as best man, and Mr. Leo Schuller as usher.

Little Jermome Rath, nephew of the bride, was page boy. He wore a white satin suit.

The flower girl was little Carolyn Schuller, niece of the bride, who also wore a gown of blue and carried a colonial bouquet of flowers.

After the ceremony a bridal dinner was given at the home of the bride's parents in Edmonton to their many near relatives and friends. Mrs. Schuller, mother of the bride, wore a frock of navy sheer, complemented with a carnation corsage.

The groom's mother chose a grey sheer gown with a carnation corsage.

A toast was presented by Rev. Father Frost.

A late afternoon buffet luncheon was held at the home of the groom's parents, from 4:30 to 8 p.m., where about 350 friends from far and wide came to wish the newly weds success and happiness in their new life. A dance

Bon Accord Sees Films On Cancer

BON ACCORD — Wednesday evening, June 20, in Bon Accord Community Hall an illustrated lecture was given on "Cancer! Facing the Facts." This was sponsored by the Women's Institute. A musical film was shown and a reel on cancer entitled "One Cell" in technicolor.

Three representatives from the Canadian Cancer Society, Alberta Division, were present. These were: Mrs. A. H. Holmes, a member of Edmonton District Council; Mr. Clarence Jackson, President, and was held that evening at the Gibbons Community Hall, which was also filled with many well-wishers, with Jack McEwan acting as master of ceremonies and chairman.

On return from their honeymoon the newlyweds will make their home near Gibbons, where the groom has farmed for many years.

The day also being the 35th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, called for a double celebration of the event.

Many good wishes go with the newlyweds from the district into their new home.

Dr. Eardley S. Allin, medical advisor for the Council.

Dr. Allin gave a few very interesting and informative facts on the various symptoms and types of cancer that may strike any part of the human body at any time of life. He also made reference to the specific cases he has seen—curable and incurable. No living thing is free from the dread disease. In summing up — there is a cure for cancer if it is discovered early.

So far, only $31 has been collected in this district for the Society. So those wishing to make a donation could get in touch with Mrs. H. W. Cline, who is in charge of collections.

Last Rites Held

For George Kelly

GIBBONS—George Kelly passed away suddenly in his 51st year at Stettler, Alta. while he was umpiring a ball game. He was born in Oklahoma, U.S.A. in 1900. He came to Canada with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barkley Kelly in 1906. The parents settled on a farm three miles east of Gibbons where he grew up to manhood, always living in this community until recent years and was well liked by all. For the past number of years he and his wife have lived in Rocky Mountain House, Alta., and there gained a wonderful friendship as he was an ardent sportsman to the last.
He was stricken with his third heart attack on May 20th which claimed his life at 8:30 pm.
He leaves to mourn his loss,
besides his wife, his son Alvin Kelly and a daughter Mrs. Bertha Green, both of Edmonton, two sisters, Mrs. Altha Lee and Mrs.
Letha Adams and many other relatives and a host of friends.

In a beautiful arrangement of floral tributes he was laid to rest in the Pine Grove Cemetery at Rocky Mountain House, this being his last request.
Funeral services were conducted by Rev. McLeod of Sylvan Lake with several hundred people in attendance. His pallbearers were: Daniel Royer (ex-Gibbons resident), Jack Newstrom, Terry Nile, Bill Armit, Jack Stonach and Bert Cole.

Widely Feted Norma Trotter

GIBBONS—Miss Norma Trotter, a recent bride, was feted by many friends before her marriage, having been a clerk in the Eaton store of Edmonton prior to her marriage. On May 14 Miss Gertrude McDona of Edmonton was hostess to a group of old neighbors and friends at a miscellaneous shower at which she received many pretty and useful gifts. On May 21 Mrs. Serby of Edmonton entertained several friends at her home at which the group presented her with a bedroom table lamp. On May 23 Mrs.
Eva Kirsch entertained at the home of her parents a group of friends at a miscellaneous shower at which she also received many gifts. On May 30 Mrs. Grace Holmes of Gibbons entertained several neighbors ladies at a miscellaneous shower. During the evening gift games and contests were played. The feature of the evening was the presentation of the gifts. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess and brought to a close a very enjoyable evening.

A reader says he is lonesome and would like to write to someone and get letters from them, but as he doesn't sign his name we do not know who he is.

There are many lonesome people in the world but this column does not pass on names even if we have them. The reason for this is that some unscrupulous people might take advantage of such a service to get others into trouble and unless there was a staff available for screening undesirable correspondents we feel that more harm than good would be the result.

DEAR LOUISA

I have a friend who talks incessantly whether she had anything to say or not. If someone else is talking, she interrupts the conversation, even if what she has to say has nothing to do with the subject.

We like this girl and she has many fine traits but this habit of hers is getting on all of our nerves.
We hate to hurt her feelings but what can we do about it?

A Friend.

Answer:

I suppose your friend is simply a grown up child still trying to attract attention. Just like some children will be bad, if other things fail, in order to be noticed, some grown ups will do anything to be the centre of attraction. They are usually people who as children, were accustomed to "showing off"
and cannot bear to take a back seat now even for a short while.

I do not know what you can do about such a friend. She is certain to hold a grudge against whomever tells her of this fault and anonymous letters are cowardly things.

You might suggest a rule for your group of a penalty for those who interrupt conversations. This may be hint enough to show her up a bit.

LOUISA.
